

FACTS

The Institution for Savings is committed to protecting your privacy. Our Privacy Policy addresses the collection of your information and how we use it. The following additional information pertains to your online privacy while using our website.

Website Privacy Information

We track user activity on our website, but do not collect personally identifiable information. The Institution for Savings uses cookies to gather information to enhance your experience while you are visiting our website. Cookies are files or pieces of information that may be stored on your computer, smartphone or tablet when visiting our website.

Most internet browsers are initially set up to automatically accept cookies. You can change the settings to block cookies or alert you when cookies are being sent to your device. Please refer to your browser instructions to learn how you can adjust your browser settings. Cookies may be necessary to use certain features on our website.

Additionally, Google Analytics™ cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the numbers of visitors to the site, where visitors have come to the site from and the pages they visited. As part of its advertising strategy, the Bank uses remarketing/retargeting services, allowing our third-party advertising vendors to show our ads on websites across the internet to consumers who have visited our website. As stated above, you can change the settings to block cookies or alert you when cookies are being sent to your device.

We may change our Website Privacy Information at any time and changes will be considered effective when they are posted to our website.
